Six Rebels Slain In Moroccan Fighting

RABAT, French Morocco, Oct. 16 (AP)—Resident Gen. Pierre Boyer de Latour du Moulin charged today French troops have been fired on from the Spanish zone of Morocco.

The charge was contained in a formal statement issued through his press chief, Maj. Michel Frois.

Jetliner Crosses Country Twice In Eight Hours

SEATTLE, Oct. 16 (AP)—The Boeing 707, America's first commercial jet transport plane, flew round-trip across the nation today in the record time of 8 hours and 6 minutes.

The big plane flew from Seattle to Washington, D.C. in 3 hours and 58 minutes. This clipped more than one-third off the conventional airliner mark. After a brief stopover at Washington, the 707 set what's believed to be an east-west transcontinental record by taking 4 hours and 8 minutes to fly from Washington back to Seattle.

The craft averaged an announced 592 m.p.h. eastward, and 570 m.p.h. westward.

Arms Deal Seen Shifting Arabs' Thinking To War

ROME, Oct. 16 (AP)—A gloomy picture of increasing crisis in the Middle East is painted by arrivals in this crossroads of the Mediterranean world. Diplomats, oilmen and other old hands report with striking unanimity that:

Egypt's decision to buy arms from Communist Czechoslovakia has made Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser a hero throughout the Arab world.

It has worked a dangerous psychological change throughout the Arab areas.

Revenge Hopes Raised
Bitterness over defeat by the Jews in the Palestine war remains deep. However, more moderate leaders had been turning Arab attention from the rankling past toward constructive projects for the future, such as the Jordan Valley plan and Greater Aswan Dam.

The arms deal—and the hopes it has raised among Arab extremists for revenge against Israel — has refocused popular attention on the destructive change of war rather than construction.

Middle Eastern experts familiar with the personal views of Nasser say he and almost all other Arab leaders are opposed to a new Palestine war.

Continuing Red Cadre
"Serious Arab leaders realize no one would gain," one highly regarded informant said. "At the same time, after the humiliation of their defeat in Palestine, Egypt felt it must have an up-to-date army. The West was not prepared to provide arms of the type or in the amount Egypt wanted."

Some 300 Communist instructors and technicians are expected in Egypt along with the planes, tanks and weapons bought in Czechoslovakia. In the years ahead Egypt will be depending on the Communists for replacement parts and to modify the arms with new developments. This insures a continuing Communist cadre in a highly sensitive area.

Sen. Butler Says He "Definitely" Will Run

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—Sen. John Marshall Butler (R-Md) said today "it's a pretty open secret" that he will seek re-election in 1956.

Butler commented during a television interview (ABC-Celebrity Parade) that he has made no formal announcement as yet but said he "definitely" will run.

D. John Markey, whom Butler defeated for the Republican senatorial nomination in 1950, already has announced he will try again.

Westinghouse Workers Begin National Strike

PITTSBURGH, Monday, Oct. 17 (AP)—The CIO International Union of Electrical Workers early today began a national strike against Westinghouse Electric Corp.

At a little past the midnight (local time) strike deadline last night, a CIO-IUE spokesman declared: "The strike is on."

The strike call came as negotiations for the company and union remained closeted in an attempt to resolve a contract dispute.

Union officials had sent out strike instructions earlier to some 44,000 members in 29 Westinghouse plants.

Placard-carrying pickets were on hand at the big East Pittsburgh plant as the strike hour rolled around and immediately took up their posts.

Real effect of the strike was not expected to be felt until later this morning when most of the plants resume operations following the weekend.

Spanish Aid For Rebels?
"The Spanish high commissioner in Morocco has perhaps denied these facts," the statement said. "In that case he is ill-informed."

Since fighting began near the Spanish zone Oct. 1, French officials have been saying the rebels had Spanish aid. They pointed out that the zone of heaviest fighting was a pocket surrounded on three sides by Spanish-occupied territory.

The rebels, they said, could easily find refuge across the border.

The French — always before speaking unofficially, however — told of an alleged training camp for guerrillas at Nador, near Melilla, and of a hospital organized in the Spanish zone to care for rebel wounded.

Six Rebels Killed
French authorities reported six rebels killed and 15 wounded in fighting in the Berkane Mountains of northern Morocco today as the country awaited the first meeting of its new Council of the Throne.

No French losses were announced. The council was established by Premier Edgar Faure's government Saturday in the hope it could lead the way to an end of two years of terrorism and the beginning of popular rule.

Oil Field Blast Kills Three Men And Injures Six
WILSON, Okla., Oct. 16 (AP)—Two craters five feet deep are mute testimony to a thunderous oil field explosion that killed three men and injured six near here last night.

The victims were members of a crew preparing a charge of nitroglycerin to prime an oil well. The explosion blew them to bits, blasted open doors in Wilson, three miles east of the site, and rattled windows as far as Ardmore, 15 miles away.

What caused the explosion probably never will be known. Police think the nitro, a jelly-like substance, was set off when wires used to detonate it accidentally touched.

Kenneth Ellison, manager of the company drilling the well, said nitroglycerin is "almost impossible to explode accidentally. . . . You can drop that stuff and even kick it around without it blowing up."

One hundred quarts of nitro blew up in this case. Experts said they had the force of a 5,000-pound bomb.

Record Try Thwarted
LAS VEGAS, Nev., Oct. 16 (AP)—Sunday motorboat drivers, caused the Bluebird to ship water into the jet type craft. Last night the same rough waters caused the boat to ship a gallon or more, endangering the turbine engine blades, and causing much concern.

The situation was even worse today with many more pleasure craft on Lake Mead. While the Bluebird was guarded by patrol boats after its second run the lake was still running heavy swells.

Campbell's boat was being towed into the Marina dock at Lake Mead's Boulder Beach when it sank. Action began immediately from a derrick barge to lower lines and haul the Bluebird in. Any further attempts for a new record seemed remote at this juncture.

Stricken Area Promised Aid By President

Convalescing Ike Will Meet Wilson And Radford Today

DENVER, Oct. 16 (AP)—President Eisenhower, no longer bedridden, sat in a chair in the hospital today and received reports on flood damage in the Northeast.

Eisenhower's assistant, Sherman Adams, filled the President in on the flood situation. The Denver White House decided that a declaration of emergency issued last August when hurricanes and floods struck the area probably still applies.

But the staff in Washington is checking that and will give a full report tomorrow.

Flood Relief Assured
Later on, through a telegram dispatched by Adams, Eisenhower assured the governor of Connecticut that the federal government will take any necessary action "fully to insure relief" for the flooded areas under the federal disaster relief law.

In addition, presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty marked the start of an accelerated presidential work schedule at Fitzsimons Army Hospital by announcing this schedule of official visitors for this week:

Tomorrow, Secretary of Defense Wilson and Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Dulles Due Back Wednesday
Wednesday, Secretary of State Dulles, returning for his second call on Eisenhower, in advance of a Washington conference Thursday with congressional leaders of both parties and his departure Saturday for the Big Four foreign ministers meeting in Geneva.

Friday, Atty. Gen. Brownell, coming in to discuss Justice Department matters.

And on Saturday, Dr. Paul Dudley White, the eminent Boston heart specialist, will return for his third examination of the 65-year-old President, now into his fourth week of recovery from a Sept. 24 heart seizure.

Wall Of Silence
Lt. Edward McCarthy, squad commander of the station house which first heard of the shooting by telephone, said he was not at liberty to disclose who made the call.

At the Russian delegation headquarters, an imposing mansion on Manhattan's Park Avenue, reporters encountered a wall of silence.

The time of the death was listed by police at about 4 p.m. yesterday. They said they were first notified about 10 p.m. A headquarters report of the case came on the police printer about 1 a.m. today.

Shot In Roof Of Mouth
Dr. Milton Helpern, New York's chief police medical examiner, said he found Minaeve dead in a fourth-floor office of the headquarters building. He had been shot in the roof of the mouth with a .45 caliber Russian automatic.

Later, after an autopsy at Bellevue Hospital morgue, Dr. Helpern's report said it was a clear case of suicide, and that Minaeve died of a "bullet wound of the skull and brain."

Police said they were told Minaeve left no note as to the reasons for his act.

103 Direct Descendants
BARRY, Ill., Oct. 16 (AP)—Mrs. Cerena Harlessen observed her 100th birthday anniversary today at a party attended by 103 direct descendants, representing four generations.

Husband, Two Roomers Lost
NORWALK, Conn., Oct. 16 (AP)—Mrs. Susan Kelly is 71. Early this morning she swam for her life when the rain-swollen Norwalk River carried away her two-story home.

Gone in the splintering wreckage were her husband, Tom, 74, and two women roomers. The three are missing and presumed dead.

Mrs. Kelly, clinging in the darkness to a piece of lumber, was hauled out of 15 feet of water by Norwalk policemen after the city's mayor spotted a head bobbing in the flood, by the light of his flashlight.

A small brown-faced wrinkled woman, Mrs. Kelly sat in Norwalk Hospital, her lips trembling as she told of the disaster that swept over her.

She said when she came back from her job as a household worker late yesterday, she noticed the river water which flows right beside her house at 8 Clark St. had risen and was lapping at the house foundation.

"I told my man, Tom, let's get out of here," she said.

"Let me alone, you make me nervous," he said—you couldn't tell that man anything," she said.

Rescue workers pry into the wreckage where a double deck Greyhound bus slammed into the rear of a halted truck six miles east of Michigan City, Ind., killing six persons and injuring 21. It is believed the bus driver failed to see the flare behind the truck.

Puzzling Events Surround Death Of Russian Clerk

NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (AP)—A puzzling sequence of events today surrounded the gunshot death of a clerk in the Russian United Nations delegation headquarters here.

Police said the clerk, Alexei Minaev, 42, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head.

But they offered no explanation of why Soviet officials postponed notifying them of the death until six hours after it occurred, or why no police report of the case was made for another three hours.

At the Russian delegation headquarters, an imposing mansion on Manhattan's Park Avenue, reporters encountered a wall of silence.

The time of the death was listed by police at about 4 p.m. yesterday. They said they were first notified about 10 p.m. A headquarters report of the case came on the police printer about 1 a.m. today.

Hurricane Katie Threatens Haiti

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 16 (AP)—Hurricane Katie boiled up in the central Caribbean Sea today and bore down immediately on Haiti and the Dominican Republic, but forecasters said she probably never will pose a threat to the U.S. mainland.

Already packing a wind punch of 115 miles an hour, Katie was discovered by reconnaissance aircraft this afternoon just 125 miles south-southwest of Port au Prince, the capital of Haiti.

An advisory from the Weather Bureau at San Juan, Puerto Rico, said the small but powerful twister would hit land shortly after midnight between Aquin, on the south coast of Haiti, and Barahona in the Dominican Republic.

Accused Killer Will Get Sanity Hearing Today
OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 16 (AP)—Otto A. Loel, a man whom psychiatrists term a "social reject," tomorrow stands trial to see if he is sane and liable for prosecution in the sadistic slaying of his cross-country woman traveling companion.

Doctors at an Oklahoma state hospital declared him an "odd ball," but not insane.

Loel is an almost fictional character, a lean and hungry-looking man who claims to have been a China opium dealer, an Oregon police chief, and a guy who's had nothing but trouble from five wives.

He's charged with the butcher slaying of Elizabeth Jeanne Henderson, 31, a Compton, Calif., housewife whose husband thought she was traveling with Loel on a "share the expenses" trip east.

Loel was on the FBI's list of 10 most wanted criminals when he was picked up in a routine bar raid in Sandford, Fla., just a year after the Jan. 10, 1954, motel slaying here.

Three Perish In Boat Mishap
ANNAPOLIS, Oct. 16 (AP)—Three members of a Washington, D.C., fishing party were lost and a fourth rescued today when their motorboat capsized near the mouth of the South River.

Dead on arrival at a hospital after being pulled from the water was:

Myron H. Francis, 43 (of 2148 O St., N.W.) a Navy Department auditor.

Missing and presumed drowned were Vernie Ballance, 32 (of 1930 Columbia Road, N.W.) owner of a restaurant, and Marchetta C. Strang, 21 (of 2010 Kalorama Road, N.W.), a beauty shop employee, who had danced professionally in Washington supper clubs under the name of Debbie Strand.

Mrs. Hannah Louise Francis, wife of Myron Francis, was rescued from the wind whipped waters. She was taken to Anne Arundel County Hospital for treatment for immersion, exposure and shock.

32 Dead; Rain Falls For 3rd Straight Day

Thousands Leave Homes For Second Time In 2 Months

(By The Associated Press)
Spawed by a three-day downpour, the Northeast's second major flood in two months Sunday night left 32 dead in six states and caused property damage in the millions.

Thousands were driven from their homes by raging rivers and streams. Transportation was brought to a near stand-still in many areas.

The rainfall tapered off to a drizzle Sunday night and flooded streams showed signs of receding.

Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut said National Guard reports indicated high waters everywhere in his hard-hit state were going down.

The Weather Bureau in Boston backed this up with a report that the torrential rain had been slackening for about six hours.

An Army engineer officer said streams in western Massachusetts were receding and reservoirs were holding the floods in check.

More Rain Forecast
From eastern and central New York State, where 4,500 were driven from their homes, came more encouraging reports, of streams reaching their peak and then subsiding. In only a few places were the torrents still rising.

However, more intermittent rain was forecast for Monday.

Brig. Gen. Robert J. Fleming of the Army engineers said in Hartford, Conn., that the damage "does not compare" with the havoc left by the Aug. 19 Hurricane Diane floods.

Ribicoff, too, said the cost would "be way below" that of the August flood, which killed 74 persons and caused more than 200-million-dollars damage in Connecticut alone.

The freakish storm started Friday morning with gale force winds. It was caused by a low pressure area that got stalled off the coast and drenched Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania with torrential rains. It even drenched parts of Massachusetts and New Hampshire and Vermont with snow Sunday.

Relief Supplies Pour In
Lower Connecticut caught the brunt of the storm.

The Red Cross said 4,129 families were affected in that state. The greatest number was in Milford where 2,500 families were removed from the Long Island Sound waterfront because of high tides.

Ribicoff said 48 towns were directly affected, 29 of which also were hit by the August flood.

A great stream of relief supplies—food, tents, stoves, trucks, blankets, pumps, generators and searchlights, poured into the distressed areas.

Travel, except in emergency helicopters and amphibious ducks, was at a virtual standstill.

More than a dozen towns were in a state of emergency. Many were without electric power. The number of homes evacuated mounted into the hundreds.

Army, Red Cross, state and Civil Defense authorities, in excellent practice from the August floods, proceeded with their work at high gear.

The Hurricane Diane flood two months ago was the most disastrous in Northeast history. It left 169 dead, 20 missing, and caused damage estimated at more than 1½ billion dollars.

Unhappy Yugoslavia To Stay In UN Race

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Oct. 16 (AP)—Yugoslavia insisted today it is not enthusiastic about being a compromise choice for the U.N. Security Council but said it will remain in the race against the Philippines unless a better solution is worked out.

As U.N. officials consulted on when the 60-nation General Assembly will be called back to finish the election, Dr. Joza Brilej stressed that his country primarily wants to be elected to the U.N. Economic and Social Council. But Yugoslavia will not turn down the Security Council seat if the Assembly finally decides it should have one. Brilej is the permanent Yugoslav delegate to the U.N. He would fill the Security Council post if his country is elected.

When the Assembly recessed Friday after six ballots, the United States had stopped a Soviet drive to seat Poland but had been unable to put across the Philippines, even though one ballot brought the island republic within a single vote of victory.

The Soviet bloc and the British commonwealth countries swung to Yugoslavia as a possible compromise. On the sixth ballot the Philippines mustered 29 votes, Yugoslavia 28, shy the necessary two-thirds majority. At this low point for the Philippines, all sides agreed to a recess until this week to allow electioneering.

Princess Quits Hideaway Today

BINFIELD, England, Oct. 16 (AP)—Princess Margaret, with perhaps the most fateful weeks of her life ahead, emerged smiling from her romantic rural hideaway today to go to church.

Group Capt. Peter Townsend, the divorced war hero whom millions of Britons expect her to marry, stayed home. The princess hurried straight back to him after meeting her mother at the morning service.

Tomorrow the country idyll ends. Margaret and her 40-year-old flier are slated to return to London separately. Tuesday the 25-year-old, fun-loving princess goes on public parade in a whirlwind of official functions, with church affairs high on the list.

Most Britons appear convinced Margaret has made up her mind to marry Townsend. But two big Sunday papers—the People and the Empire News—warned against taking too much for granted in face of the immense constitutional complications a Townsend match would pose. One of them said it was wrong to assume an engagement would be announced this week—or at all.

If she does marry Townsend she will fly in face of the Church of England, which holds that marriage with a divorced man is no marriage while the former wife is living.

Woman Impaled On Hit-Run Auto Is Dragged Mile

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16 (AP)—Police staged one of the most intensive manhunts in years today for a hit-and-run driver who hit a woman pedestrian and then sped off with the victim impaled on the front of his car.

Officers, calling the case "vicious," said the woman was dragged better than a mile. Her face—she was draped head down on the front of the car—was disfigured and most of her clothes torn off.

Witnesses said the driver, traveling at high speed, hit the woman last night at an intersection. She was hit so hard her shoes were knocked off. Police quoted one witness as saying he heard a noise and then saw the woman impaled on the front of the car, her head hanging below the bumper.

Stassen Doesn't See Himself As Candidate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—Harold E. Stassen said today he does not consider himself a candidate for the presidency next year if President Eisenhower decides not to run.

Stassen said "some headlines gave the wrong twist" to a comment he made last week when asked whether he would accept if offered the Republican nomination.

The President's special assistant for disarmament said then he would "do what the President wants me to do—I work with him."

Stassen said today in a television interview—ABC's "College Press Conference"—he meant that "in the total picture." As part of the Eisenhower "team," he said, the main objective is "to administer the country in the way in which the President would want it administered."

The look of trust in your youngster's face... the way your wife's eyes mirror her faith in you... these mean big responsibilities.

Your life insurance helps you meet these responsibilities. From the day you get a policy, your family is protected for the full amount of the contract. This is a unique feature of life insurance. Every year, about $35 millions are paid to American families as death benefits on policies less than a year old.

This is one of the reasons why you can count on life insurance... and why it is America's most widely used form of thrift.

A life insurance program can guarantee that money will be ready when the family needs it most... in case of the father's death... when the children go to college... to meet emergencies... for retirement. Using your life insurance wisely calls for experienced help. The best person to see, of course, is your own agent.

You'll also find many helpful suggestions in the new booklet, Your Life Insurance—And How to Use It. Your free copy will be mailed promptly; simply send your name and address on a postcard to Dept. A.

Contagious Colds!

Now—more than ever—you need one sure medication that does more than work on chest!

With infectious colds raging, don't gamble with unknown, untried treatments. Use the famous medication that does more than just work on the chest—Vicks VapoRub.

VapoRub also brings relief in the cold-irritated breathing passages—because it acts two ways at once:

1. VapoRub relieves muscular soreness and tightness, stimulates chest surfaces.
2. At the same time, VapoRub's special medicated vapors also bring relief with every breath.

You can't see these vapors, but you can feel them as they travel deep into the nose, throat and large bronchial tubes. Congestion starts breaking up. Coughing eases. Soon you enjoy wonderful, warming relief that lasts for hours.

So when infectious colds strike, rub on relief—breathe in relief with tried-and-proved Vicks VapoRub!

For most effective relief from croupy coughs, that choked-up feeling, use Vicks VapoRub in steam as directed in folder. You'll get such fast, direct relief!

Today's Sermonette

loses. Even when he wins he loses for he denies himself the strong character he could develop. All our material gain is as trash when gained at the price of a weakened character. Money gotten without work goes quickly; but not without leaving much worry in its wake.

Often we see the sign, "Men at Work." This sign should be in every church. No man can be a good Christian without willingly working for his Lord. Many use this sign just to be shielded from danger. They hide behind the sign, "Men at Work," yet do no work. The building of God's Kingdom depends on men ready and eager to be engaged in hard work. The Son of the carpenter of Nazareth said, "My Father worked hitherto, and I work." No man can be a follower of Christ and be a loafer.

God needs men. Great is the need today of men who will labor in His harvest field. Come, men, let us labor while it is day, for the night cometh when no man can work.

Are you one of those Christians that is looking for an easy job? Too many church members will have no other kind. Some want the church to make progress as long as the necessary work is done by others. They would let the church doors close before they would accept any hard or dangerous job. Like the young New York parolee they are looking for a soft touch. This way always turns out to be, like the transgressor's, a hard way. Everything a man does is dangerous. Nothing, however, is more dangerous than to do nothing.

There is none so foolish as the man who does no work, accepts no responsibility, yet expects compensation. Like the thief and the gambler he is deceiving himself. Too late he will become aware that there is a reckoning day. Our Lord has given us the privilege of being "Men at Work" with the assurance of an eternal compensation.

Garrett County Studies Voting Machine Bids

Election Board Submits Report

OAKLAND—The Board of Commissioners of Garrett County is studying a recommendation of the Garrett County Board of Election Supervisors for the purchase of 36 voting machines from the Automatic Voting Machine Company.

The election board explained that it had received bids from two manufacturers, one from Automatic at a figure of $1,474 per machine delivered here, for a total cost of $53,064 less two percent discount or $1,612.8. This would make the total cost $52,027.2.

The other bid was from Schoup Voting Machine Company for $50,801.12 for 36 machines, or $1,201.60 less than Automatic's lowest figure.

The Schoup bid was figured at $1,585.02 for each machine, making a total actual cost of $56,628, but the company offered four identical machines to be used for demonstration purposes. If the county decided it did not need a total of 40 machines, then Schoup would credit these four free machines to the bid price, reducing their total bid to $50,801.12 for 36 machines. They figure four of these would be free and 32 would be paid for.

The Automatic bid stipulated that the price included all equipment necessary to accommodate present and future elections in the county such as primary mechanism party lever and straight ticket mechanism and also an instruction model to facilitate instruction of voters. The Automatic also granted an option to purchase on or before April 1, 1956, ten or less additional machines at the price of $1,474 each.

In making the decision to recommend the voting machines of the Automatic company, Francis W. Sanders, board member, made the motion, but William O. Treacy, another board member, declined to second the motion, claiming that the Schoup bid should be clarified before taking definite action. After an hour or more of discussion, and finding both members firm in their convictions, Treacy was made temporary chairman of the board, and William L. Gibson, still relieved of his position, then seconded the motion which carried.

The manually operated machines were not considered by the board. The price of manually operated machines from both companies was $100 less per machine. The machines considered were both electrically and manually operated.

Highway Construction Is Up To $10 Billions

An eye-opening report to clarify the problem of more and better American highways has just been issued by the American Automobile Manufacturers Association. It shows there are 61 million registered motor vehicles in the United States and that these are driven 560 billion miles a year by 72 million licensed drivers.

The AMA report predicts that motor vehicle registration and travel on the nation's highways will increase more than 33 per cent by 1965, and estimates that $101 billions will be needed for highway construction in the next 10 years.

It is well to use the word "needed." Few persons question the need of that much money for roads, costs being what they are. There is no substitute for money in building new highways and standardizing old ones. Some of the major roads are being built by the toll-road system, without tax funds, only the users of the toll roads footing the construction bill.

Some major roads may be built under the proposed interstate highway plan, which depends on taxes, and still others will be built by collecting taxes from highway users in each state under the traditional plan.

This not the only state in which better roads are needed. Forty-seven other states are in the same boat. The "need" is the same everywhere. When highway funds are drawn from taxes, whether federal or state, everybody helps to pay for roads wherever they are built and whoever drives on them.

In the case of toll roads, only the vehicles that are driven through the toll gates pay to build them and maintain them — the toll tax is collected nowhere but at the toll gate. That is why toll roads, for years only a memory linked with the archaic past, have returned to the American scene.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

Egypt-Israel Problem

When Egypt decided to purchase arms from Czechoslovakia because the terms offered were satisfactory to Egypt, none could really gainsay the deal. A sovereign country is entitled to pursue such a course. On the other hand, those arms are to be used in a war against Israel and if the United States either prefers that such a war should not take place or that Egypt should not win it, the course open to us is to supply Israel with an equal quantity of superior arms.

Thus far, in every encounter between Egypt and Israel, Egypt came out second best because the Jews are better fighters, are morally more secure and spiritually more inspired. The Egyptians say that Israel is better armed. If we do not wish that Egypt should gain by her deal with the Soviet Universal State, the task is to remove any arms advantage which may come from this contract with the Soviet Universal State.

Egypt really embarrassed the State Department no end. It has been American policy to maintain a sort of balance between pro-Arab Americans, who are mostly Christian missionaries and educators and their supporters, and the Jews, both Zionist and non-Zionist. The idea has been to keep everybody happy by not being too positive in support of one side or the other.

Now the State Department is faced by a situation that offers few alternatives. Either we are pro-Egypt or pro-Israel. For those two countries are bent on war and in time of war there are only allies or enemies.

In this situation, the Republican administration in an election year will undoubtedly calculate that there are few Egyptian votes in this country but that New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and California can be lost to the Democrats over this issue. In New York, support for Egypt by the present administration could be crucial. Governor Harriman and Mayor Wagner recently visited Israel.

In the past, the United States has taken Israel for granted on the assumption that that country could not move toward Soviet Russia. Aid has gone to Arab countries on the theory that they had to be bought into line. But Egypt has now gone on its own and there is no telling which other Arab country will turn to Soviet Russia. Israel now is convinced that Soviet Russia is an enemy and that may prove embarrassing to such Jews in America as have been favorably disposed toward Russia. So Israel is, by Russia's conduct, forced into the Western world, whereas the Arabs are permitting themselves to be wooed hither and yon.

Egypt does not control the Moslem world or even the Arab world. Iran and Pakistan, for instance, are staying with us. Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Syria, Iraq are problems which need to be handled gingerly. Morocco and Algeria are involved in difficulties with France which indirectly affect their relationship with the United States. Undoubtedly an effective operation of policy in the Near East may save much for us, but it cannot be done by sacrificing Israel to Egypt.

Israel will not die and that is a factor in any calculation of that situation. One of the reasons is that most of the Jews in Israel have no place to go and therefore they might just as well die for Israel as die trying to run for their lives. That kind of logic makes good soldiers because it makes for bravery and stubbornness.

If it was a mistake to permit the State of Israel to come into existence, nothing can be done about that anymore because those who have settled that country are determined to hold it at any cost. The Egyptian has not been a good soldier. The Arab conquered him and produced a new racial complex. The Turk held the country and then the British came. The Egyptian has forgotten what independence and freedom mean. We laugh at fat Farouk but we should not; he is a symbol of the Egyptian.

Given a chance, Israel will push Egypt into Africa and keep her there. Soviet Russia's interest is principally to keep the Near East in turmoil, which embarrasses American policy in the Mediterranean. Soviet Russia possesses a large Moslem population with whom support of any Moslem country would be popular. Few Jews are left in Soviet Russia and they are neither powerful nor popular. So the Russians are functioning on a program that is sound from their standpoint.

"What Happened To The Faint Hearts?"

Humphrey Likes Warren If Eisenhower Retires

By Joseph and Stewart Alsop

CHICAGO — The gradual unveiling of the intentions of key individuals in any confused political situation, such as the situation which has been tragically created by the President's heart attack.

Last Monday, a major unveiling occurred in Chicago. The occasion was the fund-raising dinner of the Republican Citizens' Finance Committee, at which Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey was the chief speaker. After the dinner the Citizens' Committee chairman, Charles Percy of the Bell & Howell Company, gave a party at which Secretary Humphrey met a select group of the larger Republican contributors.

It was here that the unveiling of Humphrey took place. Inevitably, the other guests wanted to know which candidate Humphrey would favor if President Eisenhower should decide not to run again. Without any beating about the bush, Humphrey answered that he thought Chief Justice Earl Warren would be the strongest and best choice the Republican party make, although, Humphrey added, "Warren will be very hard to get."

Despite its private and informal character, this Humphrey declaration for Warren has the highest significance. In his own big state of Ohio, Humphrey comes close to being the behind-the-scenes boss of the Republican organization. All over the country, the businessmen who form the dominant Republican group look to Humphrey for leadership and will follow where he leads.

In the White House, above all, Humphrey has more influence with the President than any other man except Gov. Sherman Adams. And Humphrey also has great influence with Gov. Adams, with whom he long ago formed a quiet personal alliance.

For the immediate future, the White House is where Humphrey's choice is likely to count most. It sticks out a mile that he has passed over Vice President Richard, who is a supremely available Republican candidate, in favor of the chief justice, who has publicly declared that he is absolutely unavailable. It seems fair to interpret this as meaning that Humphrey dislikes the idea of the Nixon candidacy. It probably also means that Humphrey's partner, Adams, shares this dislike of the Nixon candidacy.

Could Stop Ike's Blessing
If these two are not converted to the Nixon candidacy, moreover, it is a 2-to-1 bet that the President will not give the vice president any laying on of hands.

Nixon would be a certain nominee with the President's blessing. He will still be the leading Republican hopeful but his future will become the opposite of certain if no blessing is forthcoming. What holds true for Nixon, furthermore, also holds true with even greater force for the lesser Republican hopefuls on the Eisenhower team, such as the eager, hard-breathing Harold Stassen.

On the positive side, the implications of the Humphrey choice are equally great. Always assuming that Humphrey and Adams are still acting together, it quite probably means that the President will be persuaded to intervene to get Chief Justice Warren into the race.

One could easily imagine what the President might say. He gave Warren the chief justiceship; and what he gave he can claim the right to take away, in favor of a higher duty. He has been forced to leave unfinished an immense national task; and he can also claim the right to designate the man who is to finish that task.

Baering Down on The News

By Arthur "Bugs" Baer

Molotov has thrown another book on the fires of conscience by adding his confessions to Rousseau and De Quincy.

Viacheslav M. busted out in well-tailored sack-cloth and talcum of ashes. He admitted he had chortled an ideological bloomer when he said, "Only a cat going through a picket fence can be on both sides at once."

The statement was definitely counter-termining of the communistic claim you can get more out of a barrel than you put in it.

So the conscience-chewed Molotov confessed the error of his detours and was jerked back into the party.

There hasn't been a confession of this magnitude since the sparrow turned in his bow and arrow to Mother Goose.

But the band leader has taken Viacheslav off the drums. If you hear from him again it will be through the clash of symbols.

People-To-People Friendship Plan Proposed As Birthday Gift To Ike

By Drew Pearson

Friendship Train To Russia

WASHINGTON—The Eisenhower cabinet gave its chief some quince trees for his Gettysburg farm on his 65th birthday—a very thoughtful present. I would like to suggest something different. It could be donated by many Americans over a period of time and I know would cheer the heart of the man in Denver who cannot work at these things himself.

At Geneva last summer, where I watched Ike work, he proposed a greater and continuing exchange of people between the United States and Russia as a means of winning the peace. Even before he made that proposal, a group of Russian farm experts had arrived in the U.S.A. While a group of American farmers had arrived in Russia in an exchange which helped cement good will among peoples as never since the days of UNRRA or the first mingling of American-Russian troops at the River Elbe on V-E Day.

On top of this the home builders, on their own, and without any help from government, have brought a delegation of Russian housing experts to the United States and are taking them on a friendly tour of American housing projects which is sure to build good will for the future.

Meanwhile Ambassador Bohlen has reported to the State Department from Moscow that already the new Russian line of peace and friendship has become so popular and the Russian people so sold on it that the Kremlin could not change without risking grave unrest at home.

In other words, friendship between peoples is the best insurance we have against war.

Secret Jury Bug

There's more than meets the eye behind the Senate investigation of the hidden microphone placed in a Wichita, Kan., federal grand jury by the University of Chicago Law School.

Attorney General Brownell, when he heard about it, got in touch with Judge Orie Phillips of Denver, a Republican, a good friend of Ike's and chief judge of the 10th Circuit U. S. Court of Appeals. Brownell wanted to start some fireworks that would react against the University of Chicago and against the Fund for the Republic, both critical of his security prosecutions.

However, what Brownell didn't know was that Ike's good friend, Judge Phillips, had OK'd the placing of the secret microphone in the Wichita jury room. In fact, District Judge Delmas Hill of Kansas and the University of Chicago staff refused to go ahead with the tap until Judge Phillips had given his OK.

Furthermore, Judge Phillips went on record officially at the annual conference of the 10th Judicial Circuit in Estes Park, Colo., July 7. Here is what he said: "... At first blush I had some doubts. But after carefully going over the safeguards that were thrown around the experiment I reached the conclusion that it could not do any harm. . . . There are two results that are on the credit side: one is proving, I think, demonstrating that juries generally do a good job. I think it demonstrates that. . . ."

"The other thing is important that Judge Murray suggested, instructing a jury. As my good friend Mr. Rooney indicated, it is a difficult problem. No matter how you couch your language it is difficult to present a charge that will be clear and plain and intelligent to the jury. If we discover in a particular case from one of these recordings that the jury didn't understand the charge, that on a critical issue the charge was misleading, we will avoid those mistakes in the future."

Five ex-presidents or top officials of the American Bar Association also approved the Wichita experiment as a means of improving the American jury system. Brownell, however, didn't know any of this at the time he launched his attack.

Merry-Go-Round

Ex-Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas, one of the most glamorous gals ever to graduate from Congress, enjoyed "old home week" in Brooklyn and Washington. She and Basil Rathbone staged a program of dramatic readings in Helen's old home town just after the Dodgers won the Series, later came to Washington where Democrats turned out en masse. . . . Mrs. Douglas was the first to tangle with the now vice president, when Nixon threw the alleged Red label at her in the California Senate race of 1950. This was the real beginning of "McCarthyism." Nixon used the smear so adroitly that McCarthy picked it up later. . . . It looks as if the powers that be in the Democratic party were out to harpoon Adlai Stevenson. Governor Leader of Pennsylvania has been advised to get off the hook for Adlai. Senator Kerr of Oklahoma is scheduled to come out for Harriman. So is Governor Gary of Oklahoma. . . . The boys who made Adlai in '52 now seem bent on unmaking him.

The Crop Situation

By Roger W. Babson

BABSON PARK, Mass. — Although prolonged drought and heat, together with hurricanes and floods, have sharply cut yields of corn, soybeans, grain sorghums, tobacco, vegetables, and other crops, I still look for a total U. S. crop outturn this year of near-record size.

Wheat, Other Summer Crops

A number of summer crops already have been harvested, and the final official tallies probably will not differ materially from the published estimates. Although the total wheat crop of nearly 917,000 bushels is down 20 per cent from the 1944-1953 average, total supplies for the current season are huge, since the carryover last July topped a billion bushels by a sizeable margin. Most of it, however, was in government hands. This fact, plus the government loan on the 1955 crop, may result in higher average wheat prices later in the season.

The barley crop is the second largest on record—some 386,000,000 bushels. This is enough to go around. Flaxseed also is in plentiful supply, with the crop the third largest on record. The record total hay crop—108,500,000 tons—should easily meet all requirements. Another record-breaker is oats, with an outturn of 1,636,000,000 bushels. . . . and incidentally, the highest-quality crop in years.

Outlook For Corn, Soybeans

The unfavorable weather conditions also harmed the country's corn crop this summer. But corn is sturdy and weathered these beatings well. Despite sharp losses, the indicated crop of 3,113,467,000 bushels is a little above the 10-year average. Total supplies for 1955-1956 will be unusually large, in view of the substantial carryover. This should keep prices from kicking over the traces, and make for favorable livestock feeding ratios. Efficient hog and cattle producers should benefit.

Soybeans — "Johnny-come-lately" wonder boy among U. S. grains — also took a drubbing from the elements—this summer, but came through with flying colors. Barring further damage, a record crop of around 388,000,000 bushels is in the works; this would be 13 per cent above the 1954 outturn and 62 per cent over the 10-year average.

decides he won't work. Then he snaps out of it and works real hard. The doctor says he has manic depression and needs treatment. Can you advise?

REPLY
Your physician is right; psychiatric treatment will be needed to remedy the condition.

COLON OUTPOCKETS

S. L. writes: What causes bubbles on the intestine? The doctor says they cannot be cured.

REPLY
When tiny pockets develop in the wall of the intestine, we call the condition diverticulosis. If they become bothersome, removal of the involved segment of the intestine may be indicated. Meanwhile, dietary and other measures will help comfort. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on diverticulosis.

POUNDING HEART

G. H. writes: After any kind of exertion my heart pounds rapidly and I have difficulty in breathing. Does this mean heart disease?

REPLY
These symptoms may be caused by heart disease or by nervousness. The only way to determine the origin is to have a complete examination including an electrocardiogram and chest X-ray.

VEERS LEFT

N. T. writes: When walking I always veer to the left. Is this a phobia or could a physical condition cause it?

REPLY
Both are possibilities. Why not consult a neurologist for a complete examination.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Deilen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

HUSBAND NEEDS CARE

Mrs. B. writes: My husband has a mental condition in which he

Coughing serves a useful purpose when it helps to clear the bronchial tree of obnoxious material and sputum. It is nature's way of eliminating the peanut that "went the wrong way" or the secretions that accumulate during a common cold.

When hacking produces results it should be encouraged and not suppressed. This is accomplished by taking a cough medicine containing an expectorant such as ammonium chloride, potassium citrate, ipecac, creosote, eucalyptus, or one of the iodides. These substances stimulate the flow of mucus and make it easier to bring up infected material.

Ordinary cough sirups have been used for more than 400 years. They stimulate the flow of saliva, taste good, and make an excellent base to dissolve expectorants and other special ingredients. Sirup of wild cherry, ginger, squill, and tulu are examples. Like cough drops, most sirups lose their effectiveness on being swallowed, unless they contain other chemicals.

A useful cough is subdued only when it aggravates chest pain, interferes with sleep, or causes fatigue. The useless cough is dry and hacking and stems from irritation in the respiratory tract. This structure extends from the tip of the nose to the base of the lungs. Enlarged adenoids, sinus trouble, laryngitis, and sore throat also induce this type of cough.

Inflammation of the lining of the upper windpipe (tracheitis) produces one of the most miserable coughs. A constant tickling sensation in the upper chest leads to uncontrollable barking without bringing up a drop of mucus. The chest hurts and it is impossible to sleep unless snowed under with codeine or another suppressant.

Croup is an example of a severe cough of childhood. It originates in the larynx and develops suddenly, usually in the middle of the night when the bedroom is cooled by night air. The cough is spasmodic and brassy in nature; it is non-productive and annoying. The croup kettle became famous as a remedy for this condition. Steam from the boiling water is inhaled and supplies moisture to the dry irritated membranes.

Many other products control such coughs. Codeine and the synthetic morphine substitutes are beneficial. The antihistaminic drugs are useful when allergy co-exists and various drugs are available to relieve spasm of the bronchial tubes.

The expectorants are of value in treating useless cough. Like the croup kettle they ease distress by producing mucus that soothes the dry membranes and helps to liquefy the sputum. The sulfonamides and antibiotics may be needed to control infection and when used properly are most effective because they strike at the basic cause of the bronchial irritation.

Try And Stop Me!

By Bennett Cerf

District Attorney Frank Hogan was putting in a boost for the lady cops on the New York force. "We've got a couple of beauty queens," he said, "who are sure death on masher. One of them nabbed a fresh bird in the subway late at night. He insisted on getting up and offering our girl his seat."

"Maybe he was just being gallant," objected a friend. "Isn't it a bit drastic to arrest a guy just for offering a lady his seat in the subway?"

"You don't quite get the picture," said Hogan. "They were the only two people in the car."

Bob Sylvester tells about a sharpie who specialized in shops that were always having "Going Out of Business," "Positively Last Three Days," and "Must Vacate" sales. When his brother asked,

"What business should I put my son into? He graduates from college tomorrow." The sharpie suggested, "Open a store for him and let him go out of business by himself."

Garrett County Studies Voting Machine Bids

Election Board Submits Report

OAKLAND—The Board of Commissioners of Garrett County is studying a recommendation of the Garrett County Board of Election Supervisors for the purchase of 36 voting machines from the Automatic Voting Machine Company.

The election board explained that it had received bids from two manufacturers, one from Automatic at a figure of $1,474 per machine delivered here, for a total cost of $53,064 less two percent discount or $1,612.8. This would make the total cost $52,022.

The other bid was from Schoup Voting Machine Company for $50,801.12 for 36 machines, or $1,201.60 less than Automatic's lowest figure.

The Schoup bid was figured at $1,585.02 for each machine, making a total actual cost of $56,628, but the company offered four identical machines to be used for demonstration purposes. If the county decided it did not need a total of 40 machines, then Schoup would credit these four free machines to the bid-price, reducing their total bid to $50,801.12 for 36 machines. They figure four of these would be free and 32 would be paid for.

The Automatic bid stipulated that the price included all equipment necessary to accommodate present and future elections in the county such as primary mechanism party lever and straight ticket mechanism and also an instruction model to facilitate instruction of voters. The Automatic also granted an option to purchase on or before April 1, 1956, ten or less additional machines at the price of $1,474 each.

In making the decision to recommend the voting machines of the Automatic company, Francis W. Sanders, board member, made the motion, but William O. Treacy, another board member, declined to second the motion, claiming that the Schoup bid should be clarified before taking definite action. After an hour or more of discussion, and finding both members firm in their convictions, Treacy was made temporary chairman of the board, and William L. Gibson, thus relieved of his position, then seconded the motion which carried.

The manually operated machines were not considered by the board. The price of manually operated machines from both companies was $100 less per machine. The machines considered were both electrically and manually operated.

W. Va. Nurses Praised For Polio Work

Scores Volunteered In Vaccine Program

KEYSER — Miss Gladys Garst, president of the West Virginia State Nurses Association, and Chief of the Nursing Service at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Beckley, paid tribute to the nurses in West Virginia and commended them highly for giving unselfishly of their time and skills, to the polio vaccine program in this state during the past spring and summer when vaccine was administered to many children.

Miss Garst's talk was delivered to the House of Delegates at the 48th annual convention held in Parkersburg the past week. Many nurses from the Keyser, Piedmont and Fort Ashby areas assisting with the polio program in Mineral County, were given special commendation.

Mrs. Henrietta K. Allen, public health nurse of Keyser, attended the convention as a delegate from District 6. Others from this district who attended were Miss Ann Henshaw Gardner, director of Nursing education at Kings Daughters and City Hospitals, Martinsburg, and Miss Ann Lucas, president of District 6 of the State Nurses Association.

The theme of the convention which was held at the Chancellors Hotel, Parkersburg, was "Synchronizing Nursing."

Mrs. Eleanor Cordray, RN of Clarkburg, assistant administrator of the Harrison County Tuberculosis Association, was elected president of the W. Va. State Nurses Association. Mrs. Cordray is acquainted with Mineral County nurses, and at the May meeting of local group she is remembered for her talk on Public Relations at a dinner meeting held last May in the Rosemont Restaurant in Keyser, by District 6 of the State Nurses Association.

A full report of the state convention will be made at a District 6 regular meeting Monday evening at the Kings Daughters Hospital, Martinsburg.

ELDER LEONARD S. DOVE

Leonard S. Dove, 48, Arlington, Va., died suddenly of a heart attack Saturday night in a Washington hospital after having preached at a service in Sperryville, Va.

Elder for two years at Primitive Baptist Church here, Mr. Dove had retired from the post about six months ago because of ill health. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Eulalee Dove, Arlington.

CHARLES S. BRANT

Services for Charles S. Brant, 76, husband of Bertie (Rice) Brant, 916 Bedford Street, who died Saturday in Memorial Hospital, will be conducted today at 3:30 p. m. at the Kight Funeral Home. Rev. Harold L. May, assistant pastor of Centre Street Methodist Church, will officiate and interment will be in Hillcrest Burial Park.

A native of Cumberland, he was a son of the late William B. and Sarah Alice (Shields) Brant. A life-time resident of Cumberland he was employed by the Liberty Hardware Company as a clerk until his retirement four years ago.

Besides his widow, he is survived by a son, Chester Brant, this city; a daughter, Mrs. Catherine Eichner, this city; a sister, Mrs. William Henry, this city, and two grandsons.

Pallbearers will be Scott Oster, Howard Johnson, Earl Conner, George Smith, Joseph Horevay, and John Cooper.

Garrett County Historical Society Makes Annual Tour

GRANTSVILLE—The Garrett County Historical Society held its second annual tour following a meeting at Grantsville Elementary School, and visited a number of places of unusual interest.

At each place, a talk was given by one or more of the members on the history of that particular spot as follows:

Casselman Hotel, Mrs. Joseph F. Fahey; Yoder Locker Plant, Henry Yoder; Castleman Stone Bridge, Delegate Harry C. Edwards and Miss Viola Broadwater; Stanton Mill, John Elliott; Shades of Death, Felix Robinson and Miss Ethel Broadwater; Jesse Tomlinson's Old Stone House, Felix Robinson; Compton Log School, Mrs. Henry F. Durst; Stanton's Sugar Camp, Guy S. Stanton. A talk was given on "Hoyes Crest" by Paul B. Naylor; and a talk on the Washington County Historical Society, was given by Mrs. Rebeckah B. Stonebraker.

Members noted that the place called Shades of Death was the home of William Frost, grandfather of the Misses Ethel and Viola Broadwater.

A picnic lunch was held at Meadow Mountain Inn. The committee making arrangements included Felix Robinson, chairman; Paul B. Naylor, past president; Jesse Walker, past president; Miss Viola Broadwater, past president; Miss Kathryn Speicher, and Rodney Selders.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Rebekah B. Stonebraker, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hull, Miss Alma R. Moore, Hagerstown; Walter W. Peterman, Clear Spring; Miss Margaret Klein, Chevy Chase, Md.; Mrs. Irene Hagan, Miss Barbara Hagan, Riverdale; Miss Maude Smalley, Craig Robinette, Salisbury, Pa.; Dr. H. W. Lueck, Washington; Mrs. E. Bauer, Arlington, Va.; Miss Velora Swauger, Hancock; Mr. and Mrs. Fay Yost, Savannah, Ga.; and Ralph W. Graham, Washington.

Mrs. Edith Brock, president of the society accompanied the 36 members and guests on the tour.

Highway Construction Is Up To $10 Billions

An eye-opening report to clarify the problem of more and better American highways has just been issued by the American Automobile Manufacturers Association. It shows there are 61 million registered motor vehicles in the United States and that these are driven 560 billion miles a year by 72 million licensed drivers.

The AMA report predicts that motor vehicle registration and travel on the nation's highways will increase more than 33 per cent by 1965, and estimates that $101 billions will be needed for highway construction in the next 10 years.

It is well to use the word "needed." Few persons question the need of that much money for roads, costs being what they are. There is no substitute for money in building new highways and standardizing old ones. Some of the major roads are being built by the toll-road system, without tax funds, only the users of the toll roads footing the construction bill.

Some major roads may be built under the proposed interstate highway plan, which depends on taxes, and still others will be built by collecting taxes from highway users in each state under the traditional plan.

This not the only state in which better roads are needed. Forty-seven other states are in the same boat. The "need" is the same everywhere. When highway funds are drawn from taxes, whether federal or state, everybody helps to pay for roads wherever they are built and whoever drives on them.

In the case of toll roads, only the vehicles that are driven through the toll gates pay to build them and maintain them — the toll tax is collected nowhere but at the toll gate. That is why toll roads, for years only a memory linked with the archaic past, have returned to the American scene.

Egypt-Israel Problem

When Egypt decided to purchase arms from Czechoslovakia because the terms offered were satisfactory to Egypt, none could really gainsay the deal. A sovereign country is entitled to pursue such a course. On the other hand, those arms are to be used in a war against Israel and if the United States either prefers that such a war should not take place or that Egypt should not win it, the course open to us is to supply Israel with an equal quantity of superior arms.

Thus far, in every encounter between Egypt and Israel, Egypt came out second best because the Jews are better fighters, are morally more secure and spiritually more inspired. The Egyptians say that Israel is better armed. If we do not wish that Egypt should gain by her deal with the Soviet Universal State, the task is to remove any arms advantage which may come from this contract with the Soviet Universal State.

Egypt really embarrassed the State Department no end. It has been American policy to maintain a sort of balance between pro-Arab Americans, who are mostly Christian missionaries and educators and their supporters, and the Jews, both Zionist and non-Zionist. The idea has been to keep everybody happy by not being too positive in support of one side or the other.

Now the State Department is faced by a situation that offers few alternatives. Either we are pro-Egypt or pro-Israel. For those two countries are bent on war and in time of war there are only allies or enemies.

In this situation, the Republican administration in an election year will undoubtedly calculate that there are few Egyptian votes in this country but that New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and California can be lost to the Democrats over this issue. In New York, support for Egypt by the present administration could be crucial. Governor Harriman and Mayor Wagner recently visited Israel.

In the past, the United States has taken Israel for granted on the assumption that that country could not move toward Soviet Russia. Aid has gone to Arab countries on the theory that they had to be bought into line. But Egypt has now gone on its own and there is no telling which other Arab country will turn to Soviet Russia. Israel now is convinced that Soviet Russia is an enemy and that may prove embarrassing to such Jews in America as have been favorably disposed toward Russia. So Israel is, by Russia's conduct, forced into the Western world, whereas the Arabs are permitting themselves to be wooed hither and yon.

Egypt does not control the Moslem world or even the Arab world. Iran and Pakistan, for instance, are staying with us. Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Syria, Iraq are problems which need to be handled gingerly. Morocco and Algeria are involved in difficulties with France which indirectly affect their relationship with the United States. Undoubtedly an effective operation of policy in the Near East may save much for us, but it cannot be done by sacrificing Israel to Egypt.

Israel will not die and that is a factor in any calculation of that situation. One of the reasons is that most of the Jews in Israel have no place to go and therefore they might just as well die for Israel as die trying to run for their lives. That kind of logic makes good soldiers because it makes for bravery and stubbornness.

If it was a mistake to permit the State of Israel to come into existence, nothing can be done about that anymore because those who have settled that country are determined to hold it at any cost. The Egyptian has not been a good soldier. The Arab conquered him and produced a new racial complex. The Turk held the country and then the British came. The Egyptian has forgotten what independence and freedom mean. We laugh at fat Farouk but we should not; he is a symbol of the Egyptian.

Given a chance, Israel will push Egypt into Africa and keep her there. Soviet Russia's interest is principally to keep the Near East in turmoil, which embarrasses American policy in the Mediterranean. Soviet Russia possesses a large Moslem population with whom support of any Moslem country would be popular. Few Jews are left in Soviet Russia and they are neither powerful nor popular. So the Russians are functioning on a program that is sound from their standpoint.

"What Happened To The Faint Hearts?"

Humphrey Likes Warren If Eisenhower Retires

By Joseph and Stewart Alsop

CHICAGO — The gradual unveiling of the intentions of key individuals is always the most exciting process in any confused political situation, such as the situation which has been tragically created by the President's heart attack.

Last Monday, a major unveiling occurred in Chicago. The occasion was the fund-raising dinner of the Republican Citizens' Finance Committee, at which Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey was the chief speaker. After the dinner the Citizens' Committee chairman, Charles Percy of the Bell & Howell Company, gave a party at which Secretary Humphrey met a select group of the larger Republican contributors.

It was here that the unveiling of Humphrey took place. Inevitably, the other guests wanted to know which candidate Humphrey would favor if President Eisenhower should decide not to run again. Without any beating about the bush, Humphrey answered that he thought Chief Justice Earl Warren would be the strongest and best choice the Republican party make, although, Humphrey added, "Warren will be very hard to get."

Despite its private and informal character, this Humphrey declaration for Warren has the highest significance. In his own big state of Ohio, Humphrey comes close to being the behind-the-scenes boss of the Republican organization. All over the country, the businessmen who form the dominant Republican group look to Humphrey for leadership and will follow where he leads.

In the White House, above all, Humphrey has more influence with the President than any other man except Gov. Sherman Adams. And Humphrey also has great influence with Gov. Adams, with whom he long ago formed a quiet personal alliance.

For the immediate future, the White House is where Humphrey's choice is likely to count most. It sticks out a mile that he has passed over Vice President Richard, who is a supremely available Republican candidate, in favor of the chief justice, who has publicly declared that he is absolutely unavailable. It seems fair to interpret this as meaning that Humphrey dislikes the idea of the Nixon candidacy. It probably also means that Humphrey's partner, Adams, shares this dislike of the Nixon candidacy.

Could Stop Ike's Blessing
If these two are not converted to the Nixon candidacy, moreover, it is a 2-to-1 bet that the President will not give the vice president any laying on of hands.

Nixon would be a certain nominee with the President's blessing. He will still be the leading Republican hopeful but his future will become the opposite of certain if no blessing is forthcoming. What holds true for Nixon, furthermore, also holds true with even greater force for the lesser Republican hopefuls on the Eisenhower team, such as the eager, hard-breathing Harold Stassen.

Baering Down on The News

By Arthur "Bugs" Baer

Molotov has thrown another book on the fires of conscience by adding his confessions to Rosseau and De Quincy.

Viacheslav M. busted out in well-tailored sack-cloth and talcum of ashes. He admitted he had crocheted an ideological bloomer when he said, "Only a cat going through a picket fence can be on both sides at once."

The statement was definitely counter-termining of the communistic claim you can get more out of a barrel than you put in it.

So the conscience-chewed Molotov confessed the error of his detours and was jerked back into the party.

There hasn't been a confession of this magnitude since the sparrow turned in his bow and arrow to Mother Goose.

But the band leader has taken Viacheslav off the drums. If you hear from him again it will be through the clash of symbols.

Coughing, On Occasion, Serves Useful Purpose

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Deilen

Coughing serves a useful purpose when it helps to clear the bronchial tree of obnoxious material and sputum. It is nature's way of eliminating the peanut that "went the wrong way" or the secretions that accumulate during a common cold.

When hacking produces results it should be encouraged and not suppressed. This is accomplished by taking a cough medicine containing an expectorant such as ammonium chloride, potassium citrate, ipecac, creosote, eucalyptus, or one of the iodides. These substances stimulate the flow of mucus and make it easier to bring up infected material.

Ordinary cough sirups have been used for more than 400 years. They stimulate the flow of saliva, taste good, and make an excellent base to dissolve expectorants and other special ingredients. Sirup of wild cherry, ginger, squill, and tulu are examples. Like cough drops, most sirups lose their effectiveness on being swallowed, unless they contain other chemicals.

A useful cough is subdued only when it aggravates chest pain, interferes with sleep, or causes fatigue. The useless cough is dry and hacking and stems from irritation in the respiratory tract. This structure extends from the tip of the nose to the base of the lungs. Enlarged adenoids, sinus trouble, laryngitis, and sore throat also induce this type of cough.

Inflammation of the lining of the upper windpipe (tracheitis) produces one of the most miserable coughs. A constant tickling sensation in the upper chest leads to uncontrollable barking without bringing up a drop of mucus. The chest hurts and it is impossible to sleep unless snowed under with codeine or another suppressant.

Croup is an example of a severe cough of childhood. It originates in the larynx and develops suddenly, usually in the middle of the night when the bedroom is cooled by night air. The cough is spasmodic and brassy in nature; it is non-productive and annoying. The croup kettle became famous as a remedy for this condition. Steam from the boiling water is inhaled and supplies moisture to the dry irritated membranes.

Many other products control such coughs. Codeine and the synthetic morphine substitutes are beneficial. The antihistaminic drugs are useful when allergy co-exists and various drugs are available to relieve spasm of the bronchial tubes.

The expectorants are of value in treating useless cough. Like the croup kettle they ease distress by producing mucus that soothes the dry membranes and helps to liquefy the sputum. The sulfonamides and antibiotics may be needed to control infection and when used properly are most effective because they strike at the basic cause of the bronchial irritation.

People-To-People Friendship Plan Proposed As Birthday Gift To Ike

By Drew Pearson

Friendship Train To Russia

I remember at a luncheon with Eisenhower in New York in the spring of 1948, I proposed a friendship train to Russia to try to accomplish people-to-people friendship. His reaction was negative, and perhaps my idea was ahead of its time. But today the time for people-to-people friendship is ripe and the idea already taking root.

So I would like to propose that the best and most lasting birthday present the American people could give would be to carry on the Geneva idea of getting people acquainted.

If, for instance, the American Medical Association did what the home builders have done and arranged for reciprocal visits of doctors; if the American Bar Association arranged for reciprocal visits of lawyers; if teachers, university professors, the engineering societies, architects, service clubs, churches, women's clubs, continued this idea, it would lead to an understanding which no ruler in the Kremlin, no matter how bellicose, could easily put aside.

Moreover, it would be a great birthday present to a man now unable to work at these things himself. Why not get a message to him promising such an exchange right now? The birthday presents that come in a day or two late are sometimes appreciated most.

Secret Jury Bug

There's more than meets the eye behind the Senate investigation of the hidden microphone placed in a Wichita, Kan., federal grand jury by the University of Chicago Law School.

Attorney General Brownell, when he heard about it, got in touch with Judge Orin Phillips of Denver, a Republican, a good friend of Ike's and chief judge of the 10th Circuit U. S. Court of Appeals. Brownell wanted to start some fireworks that would react against the University of Chicago and against the Fund for the Republic, both critical of his security prosecutions.

However, what Brownell didn't know was that Ike's good friend, Judge Phillips, had OK'd the placing of the secret microphone in the Wichita jury room. In fact, District Judge Delmas Hill of Kansas and the University of Chicago staff refused to go ahead with the tap until Judge Phillips had given his OK.

The Crop Situation

By Roger W. Babson

BABSON PARK, Mass. — Although prolonged drought and heat, together with hurricanes and floods, have sharply cut yields of corn, soybeans, grain sorghums, tobacco, vegetables, and other crops, I still look for a total U. S. crop outturn this year of near-record size.

Wheat, Other Summer Crops

A number of summer crops already have been harvested, and the final official tallies probably will not differ materially from the published estimates. Although the total wheat crop of nearly 917,000,000 bushels is down 20 per cent from the 1944-1953 average, total supplies for the current season are huge, since the carryover last July topped a billion bushels by a sizeable margin. Most of it, however, was in government hands. This fact, plus the government loan on the 1955 crop, may result in higher average wheat prices later in the season.

The barley crop is the second largest on record—some 396,000,000 bushels. This is enough to go around. Flaxseed also is in plentiful supply, with the crop the third largest on record. The record total hay crop—108,500,000 tons—should easily meet all requirements. Another record-breaker is oats, with an outturn of 1,636,000,000 bushels—and incidentally, the highest-quality crop in years.

Outlook For Corn, Soybeans

The unfavorable weather conditions also harmed the country's corn crop this summer. But corn is sturdy and weathered these beatings well. Despite sharp losses, the indicated crop of 3,113,467,000 bushels is a little above the 10-year average. Total supplies for 1955-1956 will be unusually large, in view of the substantial carryover. This should keep prices from kicking over the traces, and make for favorable livestock feeding ratios. Efficient hog and cattle producers should benefit.

Soybeans — "Johnny-come-lately" wonder boy among U. S. grains — also took a drubbing from the elements—this summer, but came through with flying colors. Barring further damage, a record crop of around 388,000,000 bushels is in the works; this would be 13 per cent above the 1954 outturn and 62 per cent over the 10-year average.

You're Telling Me!

By William Ritt

The six millionth car to be produced by the American automotive industry has just come off the assembly line. Problem now is —how are they going to squeeze it into today's stream of traffic?

In Minnesota, according to a newspaper item, there's an orchestra known as the Six Fat

Furthermore, Judge Phillips went on record officially at the annual conference of the 10th Judicial Circuit in Estes Park, Colo., July 7. Here is what he said: "... At first blush I had some doubts. But after carefully going over the safeguards that were thrown around the experiment I reached the conclusion that it could not do any harm. . . . There are two results that are on the credit side: one is proving, I think, demonstrating that juries generally do a good job. I think it demonstrates that. . . .

"The other thing is important that Judge Murray suggested, instructing a jury. As my good friend Mr. Rooney indicated, it is a difficult problem. No matter how you couch your language it is difficult to present a charge that will be clear and plain and intelligent to the jury. If we discover in a particular case from one of these recordings that the jury didn't understand the charge, that on a critical issue the charge was misleading, we will avoid those mistakes in the future."

Five ex-presidents or top officials of the American Bar Association also approved the Wichita experiment as a means of improving the American jury system. Brownell, however, didn't know any of this at the time he launched his attack.

Merry-Go-Round

Ex-Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas, one of the most glamorous gals ever to graduate from Congress, enjoyed "old home week" in Brooklyn and Washington. She and Basil Rathbone staged a program of dramatic readings in Helen's old home town just after the Dodgers won the Series, later came to Washington where Democrats turned out en masse. . . . Mrs. Douglas was the first to tangle with the now vice president, when Nixon threw the alleged Red label at her in the California Senate race of 1950. This was the real beginning of "McCarthyism." Nixon used the smear so adroitly that McCarthy picked it up later. . . . It looks as if the powers that be in the Democratic party were out to harpoon Adlai Stevenson, Governor Leader of Pennsylvania has been advised to get off the hook for Adlai. Senator Kerr of Oklahoma is scheduled to come out for Harriman. So is Governor Gary of Oklahoma. . . . The boys who made Adlai in '52 now seem bent on unmaking him.

(Copyright, 1955, The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Over-all supplies of this versatile bean appear somewhat heavy to me, and I doubt that prices will make sustained progress on the upside, over the near term at least.

Cotton, Other Fall Crops

Despite record small plantings, the U. S. cotton crop may amount to 12,873,000 bales, which would be only moderately under the 10-year average. Including the August 1 carryover of some 11,100,000 bales, total supplies for the current season are top-heavy. They, however, may not prove burdensome since the bulk of the carryover is in government hands. Free supplies will dwindle as the season works along and prices probably will average higher.

Dry beans promise to do well this year, with an indicated outturn of around 18,900,000 bags — 9 per cent above average. This means plenty of the Boston specialty for all hands! The U. S. rice crop may amount to about 48,700,000 bags—an amount easily sufficient for all requirements. The late potato crop (grown in 29 states) of 313,527,000 bushels is about average size, and should have no difficulty meeting late fall and winter needs. Prices should work higher later on.

Fairly Good Times

All this adds up to fairly good times for the American farmer, although prices of farm products for the first eight months of this year averaged about 5 per cent lower than in the corresponding period of 1954. Efficient, well-managed farms are still making money, despite the fact that the cost of things the farmer buys is still relatively high. The going, of course, is tough, and always has been, for the small, inefficient farm; but, as I view the situation, American agriculture is doing well.

Since 1956 is a presidential election year, the farmer's well-being will top the agenda when Congress reconvenes in January. Whether high, rigid supports will be restored, or the flexible system further extended, remains to be seen. I again forecast that the real need is for a long-term solution. Meanwhile, farmers should continue to work faithfully, serve their God, and vote in accordance with their basic convictions.

Nine Teams Of Bigtime Stature Surprised Wave Of Upsets

Notre Dame, Georgia Tech Fall From Unbeaten Ranks

Michigan, Maryland And Oklahoma Win; Duke Beats Buckeyes

By WILL GRIMSLEY
The Associated Press

The bottom fell out of the skies in the East and the dam burst in college football, leaving a debris of upsets and shattered national dreams today from one end of the country to the other.

In a week-end of violent resurgence on the part of underdogs, four members of the top ten—Notre Dame, Georgia Tech, Wisconsin and Texas Christian—were smitten from the ranks of the unbeaten and untied, along with a pair of regional powerhouses, Washington and Princeton.

In the wake of the carnage only nine teams of bigtime stature were left with unspoiled records.

These were Maryland, with five straight victories; Michigan, Oklahoma, Navy, Duke, West Virginia, Yale and Colorado, with four each; and Boston College, with three.

SMU Smothers Rice
High-ranked Army lost its second game in eight days, bowing to Syracuse, a three-touchdown underdog, 13-0. Rice, the Southwest Conference title favorite, was smothered by Southern Methodist 20-0. Dartmouth lost to Lafayette 21-13 and Brown fell before Rutgers 14-12.

It was the heaviest casualty list among the gridiron's "sure things" since the season began approximately a month ago.

Notre Dame's fighting Irish, fourth-ranked nationally and untied in their opening three games, went down 21-7 before fired-up Michigan State, which convinced a national television audience of its superiority.

Spartans Stop Irish
While the Spartans' hard-hitting line throttled Notre Dame's scoring punch, fullback Gerry Planitis sparked the Michigan State attack, scoring one touchdown, setting up another and kicking the three extra points.

Georgia Tech, the No. 5 team, found Auburn's Howard Tubbs too tough and went down 14-12. Tubbs' passing was responsible for both Auburn scores as the Alabama team, tied by Kentucky but unbeaten, moved to the forefront for Southeastern Conference honors and a Sugar Bowl bid.

Texas Christian Falls
Wisconsin, No. 6, was a 33-21 Friday night victim of rebounding Southern California while Texas

9. Auburn (3-0-1)
10. Southern California (4-1) and West Virginia (4-0)

Christian, No. 7, saw one of its greatest teams fall before Texas A&M 19-16. The always wide open Southwest Conference race, with the Cotton Bowl bid as its chief prize, was thrown into further confusion by Arkansas' 29-20 victory over Texas.

Washington's Huskies, with four big wins on a string, fell before a smaller but faster Baylor team, led by double-threat Bobby Jones, 13-7. Unbeaten Princeton was completely outplayed by Colgate, which won in a rainstorm 15-6.

"Big Three" Wins
The present "big three" of the college picture—Michigan, Maryland and Oklahoma, who rank in that order in the Associated Press poll—had mid-Saturday assignments and came through, although top-ranked Michigan was not overly impressive.

Michigan had an unexpectedly hard time with Northwestern 14-7. Maryland won its 10th straight game over a two-year period, beating North Carolina 25-7 on Ed Vereb's three touchdowns. Oklahoma extended the longest current winning streak to 23 games by whipping Kansas 44-6. It was the 9th straight game in which the Sooners have scored.

Navy Belts Lions
Eight-ranked Navy, with George Welsh and Ronnie Beagle forming an unbeatable battery, crushed Penn State 34-14. UCLA, No. 9, despite an earlier loss to Maryland, thrashed Stanford 21-13. West Virginia, No. 10, continued rolling, smothering William & Mary 29-13.

A mad scramble is in prospect for positions in the coveted first round, Michigan State, Baylor, Southern California, Auburn and Texas A&M will demand recognition on their surprise triumphs.

Duke Trips Buckeyes
Duke, ranked 11th, rallied from a two-touchdown deficit to beat Ohio State 13-7. Colorado, No. 20, remained unbeaten by smothering Kansas State 34-13.

Yale forged to the front for Ivy championship honors by drubbing Cornell 34-6. Harvard won over Columbia 21-7. Pittsburgh ripped Nebraska 21-7. Boston College shut out Detroit 23-0.

In other Big Ten games, Illinois beat Minnesota 21-13 and Purdue tied Iowa 20-20, scoring on the last play of the game. Also in the Midwest, Indiana won an intercollegiate game from Villanova 14-7 and Cincinnati surprised with a 13-12 verdict over Marquette.

In the south, Tennessee blanked Alabama 20-0. Florida tripped Louisiana State 18-14. Mississippi thrashed Tulane 27-13. Mississippi State beat Kentucky 20-14. Georgia rolled over Florida State 47-14. Virginia downed VMI 20-13. Richmond tied Virginia Tech 7-7 and North Carolina State drew with Wake Forest 13-13.

California Walloped
UCLA, Southern Cal and Washington continue as best bets on the Pacific Coast. Oregon walloped California 21-0. Washington State topped Idaho 9-0 and College of the Pacific defeated Oregon State 13-7.

Marmalade was first made for Mary, Queen of Scots, at the time when she was recuperating from an illness. It was originally called "Marie malade."

Blazers Are Campers' 4th Grid Victim

Fort Hill Conquers Handley; Shepherd, Northern High Win

Coach Roy Lester's Allegany High School gridlers kept their record unblemished by defeating Montgomery Blair High School of Silver Spring here Saturday night, 26-0, and Fort Hill High School's Sentinels made it five wins in a row by trimming the Handley High School Gridders Saturday afternoon at Winchester, Va., by the score of 23-7.

The area's only undefeated college eleven, Shepherd, handed Potomac State's Catamounts a 33-0 trouncing at Shepherdstown. The Rams' fourth consecutive win of the season was the worst setback suffered by the Keyser eleven since 1953 when it dropped a 29-0 decision to Concord College.

In another Saturday contest, Northern High School's Huskies romped to a 38-0 victory over Southern High's "B" team in Garrett county.

Undefeated Allegany notched its fourth triumph of the campaign at the expense of the Blazers from Montgomery County who were undefeated and untied last year.

Eddie Fletcher Show W. B. Fletcher accounted for all of the Campers' points. They scored two touchdowns each and Fletcher added two points from placement.

Fletcher scored the first td in the second period when he carried from the 11. He plunged from the one in the final stanza for his second six-pointer. Cecil scored on a 41-yard punt return in the third half and circled left end for his second tally in the final period. The teams were charged with eleven fumbles, Allegany committing six and the Blazers five.

Fort Hill defeated the previously unbeaten and unscored on Judges by tallying a field goal in the first period, two touchdowns in the third quarter and one six-pointer in the final canto.

Crawford Paces Scoring
Jim Crawford, the city's leading point scorer, booted a field goal from the 19, in the opening quarter, scored a touchdown from the one in the third period and made two conversions to boost his season's total to 47.

Handley took a 7-3 lead in the second stanza when Frank Armstrong's long punt over the four and Bill Hickerson kicked the point but Clarence "Pooch" Lewis scored what proved to be the winning touchdown when he caught Armstrong's punt on the Fort Hill 30 and returned it 70 yards to give the Sentinels a 9-7 edge early in the third quarter. John Kessler registered Fort Hill's final six pointer in the last period on a seven-yard gallop.

The victory was the fifth for Coach Bill Hahn's Warriors since they dropped the opener to Morgantown High School.

Hott Makes Long Runs
George Hott, former Moorefield High all-around athlete, dashed 52 and 65 yards for scores and Dick Widdows, former Allegany High griddler, snared a 34-yard touchdown from John Shearer as Shepherd knocked off Potomac State. The other Rams' scores were credited to Shearer and Hall.

Northern High scored in every period to rout the Southern High B's. Carl Mazer and Joe Bender shared four of the six touchdowns while Dick Spear and Wayne McKenzie made the others. Mazer and Bender plunged for the extra points.

The quarter scores:
ALLEGANY 0 6 7 13-26
MONTGOMERY BLAIR 0 0 0 0-0
Touchdowns scored by Fletcher (Allegany). Points after touchdowns scored by Fletcher (Allegany).

Bears Crush Baltimore, 38-10; Washington Beaten, 24-14

Colts Suffer Initial Loss Before 40,184

Rick Casares Scores One Of Chicago's TDs On 81-Yard Run

CHICAGO, Oct. 16 (AP)—The Chicago Bears handed the previously unbeaten Baltimore Colts a stunning 38-10 setback today to secure their first National Football League victory of the season.

Beaten in three previous games including a 23-17 loss suffered at the hands of the Colts, the Bears broke loose with five touchdowns and a field goal to demoralize the bewildered Baltimoreans.

Casares Runs 81 Yards
Rookie Rick Casares broke the game open in the second quarter with a bruising 81-yard touchdown run before a cheering crowd of 40,184.

With the game tied at 3-3 on an exchange of first quarter field goals by Bert Rechichar and George Blanda, Casares took a pitchout and slammed through the Colt line on his brilliant run. Seven men had their hands on him but couldn't bring down the 225 pound halfback.

The Colts, hampered by three 15-yard penalties in four plays, began to move on a 17-yard run by fullback Alan Ameche and a 13-yard pass from George Shaw to Lloyd Coulter. However, Bear tackle Bill George intercepted a Shaw pass putting the ball on the Bear 49.

Score On 51-Yard Pass
On the next play Blanda fired a 51-yard touchdown pass to end Gene Schroeder. Blanda again converted giving the Bears a comfortable 17-3 halftime lead.

The Bears pushed across two more touchdowns in the third quarter before Baltimore finally crossed their goal line after recovering a fumbled punt in the fourth period.

Redskins' Air Attack Halted By Cleveland

Modzelewski Scores Twice; Ohioans Stay Tied With Steelers

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—The Cleveland Browns struck two touchdowns in a three-minute stretch of the third quarter today and that was good enough for a 24-14 victory over the Washington Redskins in a rough defensive football game.

Ed (Mighty Mo) Modzelewski ran 6 yards for one touchdown and took a 5-yard pass from Otto Graham for another, but the best weapon the Browns had was their pass defense. It throttled Washington's aerial attack all afternoon.

Tied With Steelers
By winning, the Browns remained in a tie with the Pittsburgh Steelers for the National Football League's Eastern Division lead.

Cleveland also gained revenge on the Redskins, who had beaten the Browns 27-17 in an earlier meeting this season at Cleveland.

A crowd of 29,168 watched the Browns score first after Kenny Konz recovered a fumble by Washington's Vic Janowicz on the Redskins' 27. The officials ruled a Graham pass completed for interference on the Redskins 6, and Modzelewski shot through the middle for the score.

Washington tied it up on a 69-yard drive late in the first quarter, with Dale Atkeson going the last 15 on a run around his right end. Groza Boots 41 Yard Goal

Old reliable Lou Groza put the Browns ahead to stay one minute before the end of the first half on a 41-yard field goal booted into the face of a strong wind.

City Furniture Will Erect New Building Here

The management of the City Furniture Store has confirmed plans to erect a modern new building at 22-24 North Mechanic Street where it will conduct its business after January 1.

Robert E. Friedland and his son, Bertram, are now in business at 38 North Mechanic Street. Today the old Cumberland Laundry building just below the present furniture store will be placed in the hands of a wrecking crew to make room for the new structure.

The new building has been designed by the Corinthian Engineering Service. Charles Herath, an official of the engineering firm, said the new building will cost approximately $50,000 and will be ready for occupancy soon after January 1.

The new building will measure 45 feet across the front and go back 165 feet. The front will be of the most modern design, featuring large plate glass windows and grey marbled porcelain finish. The front of the structure will be of single story design while in the rear there will be a mezzanine or balcony. In the far rear will be the warehouse for the store.

Also included will be modern offices and sanitary facilities for both customers and store personnel.

The City Furniture Store has been operated in Cumberland since 1936 and has been at its present site for about 10 years. The old laundry building to be razed has been owned by the Friedlands since about 1948 and they operated the laundry business until June 1953.

The contract for the new construction has been let to Allen M. Sell and Son.

Oil Progress Week Is Observed Here

Officials of five major oil companies held a dinner Thursday at the Cumberland Country Club in observance of Oil Progress Week.

Toastmaster for the event was Howard A. Frost.

Attending were all members of the area Oil Industry Information Committee.

Va. Ave. PTA To Meet

A playlet will be presented by pupils at a meeting of the Virginia Avenue School Parent-Teacher Association this evening at 7:30 p. m. in the school.

Entitled "Superfluous" the cast is comprised of Carole Smith, Elizabeth Cornwell, Earl Campbell and John Keller.

Mrs. Edna Earle Mobus will present a vocal solo.

Room visits will be held between 7 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Checking with a mirror keeps track of your looks — but how about your personality?

Secrets Of Charm by John Robert Powers

You probably look into a mirror a dozen times a day to check your looks. But how often do you make a critical inspection of your personality? For a quick check-up right now, ask yourself these questions:

1. When I talk, do others really listen?
2. Do conversations I engage in always stay on trivial subjects, or are many of them on subjects of importance?
3. Have I learned something recently from what someone else said, and have I been interested enough to pursue the subject on my own?
4. Am I turning an acquaintance into a worthwhile friend?

These four questions fall very short of covering personality, but they strike at fundamentals. They help you estimate how fascinating a conversationalist you are, how good a listener, how sympathetic a companion. But they also inquire into your self-interest, and it's self-interest that is the greatest threat to personality and charm.

Perhaps you aren't listened to because you talk too much about yourself. Conversations stay trivial because you don't respond to leads toward something more worthwhile—you may know very little about anything outside your own small orbit. You don't learn from others because you don't listen, or reach out of yourself enough to be interested in what someone else finds interesting. Shallowness encourages few to turn acquaintance into friendship.

Alertness to what goes on in the world and knowledge of subjects and activities that concern other people—these you must gain if your answers to the check-up questions aren't what they should be. But more than this, you must be interested in the ideas and opinions of others and in others themselves to hold the interest good looks may have attracted.

Men Seek To Service County Extinguishers

Bernard G. Yeager and Jeremiah T. Debaugh appeared before the Allegany County Board of Commissioners to bid for the business of servicing the fire extinguishers in county institutions.

The men were told to check with City Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker to get his approval of the plan before any further action is taken.

A private individual formerly serviced the extinguishers but in recent months city firemen have been called upon to do the job.

Gleaners Class Hears Recital

FROSTBURG — Richard Rephann, a graduate of Peabody Conservatory of Music presented a piano recital at the October meeting of the Gleaners Class of First Methodist Church, Thursday evening in the Sunday School room.

Rephann's selections were "La Puerta del Vino" by Debussy, "Ballade in G Minor" by Brahms, "Pastorale" by Poulenc and "Malaguena" by LeCuna.

Mrs. Bernice Kohout was in charge of the devotional program, using the theme "Be Not Afraid, Only Believe" taken from Mark 5: 36. Miss Margaret Jones sang "I Believe" accompanied by Mrs. Thelma Rephann at the piano. A closing prayer was offered by Mrs. Edith Cook.

The remainder of the program was in keeping with the Halloween season with Mrs. Margaret Aldridge presenting several humorous readings; followed by games in charge of Mrs. Mary Ann Cook. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Beulah Williamson, Mrs. Evelyn Hardesty, Mrs. Ruby Boettner, Mrs. Ruth Snyder, Mrs. Bertha Finzel and Mrs. Rose Croft.

Mrs. John G. Cook, teacher of the Gleaners Class will present a travel talk of her trip abroad this summer, October 27 at 8 p. m. in the lecture room of the church. A social hour will follow. The public may attend.

NOW ON DISPLAY

DODGE DEALER

You'll think it's "Look of Success" is Wonderful... But if it's a Used Car you need ask to see one of these whose owners traded them only because the eye-appealing!

1954 PLYMOUTH
Belvedere 4 Dr.

This is the luxury model of the Plymouth line. Only once or twice a year do we receive a car that is a showroom car and this is one of them! In beautiful 2 tone paint, this lovely one owner car leaves nothing to be desired. Immaculate inside and out with low mileage and like new tires.
The original owner took the depreciation on this like new car
—you can buy it at a fraction of it's original cost.

1953 DODGE
CORONET
V8 Club Sedan

You will find inside in this beautiful two tone blue car, an automatic transmission,
radio, heater, and defroster,
and many other accessories.
You will be proud to park this car in front of your home.
And too, you will remember this is the model that won the Mobile Gas Economy Run and established 196 AAA records, more than any other car in it's class. You can't buy more for less.

1950 FORD V8
Deluxe

Here is a 4 door sedan that will make you an economical car in operation as well as original cost. Car is nice inside and out.
And the tires are like new all around. Plenty of power and riding comfort. You can buy this for $445 — Yes, we said $445 and with no down payment. The payments can be as small as approximately $23.

1949 OLDSMOBILE
"98" 4 Door

For you folks liking the feel of a big car with plenty of power, wonderful riding comfort and prestige of ownership, here is the buy for you. The body is nice inside and out, and includes automatic transmission,
radio, heater, and defroster,
and many other quality features. And the price—well it's only $475. Can be purchased with No Down Payment and payments as low as approximately $23.50 monthly.

1948 PLYMOUTH
4 Door

This deluxe model is a wonderful buy. Includes radio, heater and defroster. Here, for less than you'll pay for most 1948 model cars, is a car that will give you years of service, dependability, and riding and handling comfort found only in Chrysler made products. At this price, it would make an ideal second car for you, for the children, or work and play.
Only $260. Can be purchased with no money down and payments as low as approximately $17 monthly.

Insurance Men Open Conclave At Hotel Today

Mayor To Welcome Delegates At Noon

The vanguard of several hundred expected delegates to the 19th annual convention of the Maryland Association of Insurance Agents began arriving early yesterday with registrations open at the Fort Cumberland Hotel.

The conclave, for which Robert E. Barnard Jr., this city, is general chairman of arrangements, will continue through Tuesday with a series of business sessions, conferences and social activities, including a special program for the women.

This morning, the registration booth on the main floor of the Fort Cumberland Hotel will open at 8:30 o'clock. The annual business meeting is to be held in the second floor ballroom of the Fort Cumberland from 9:30 to 11:30 a. m. today. The annual report of officers and committees will be heard and officers for 1955-56 will be elected.

At 12:30 p. m. luncheon will be served in the ballroom with Barnard presiding. Mayor Roy W. Eves will deliver an address of welcome.

Speakers Scheduled

At 2:30 p. m. today, Joseph F. Leopold, speaking for the National Tax Equality Association of Chicago, will have as his subject, "The Income Tax Disparity between Stock and Mutual Companies."

At 3:30 p. m. the convention speaker will be F. R. Reilly, assistant secretary of AFIO Incorporated. His topic is "Budgeting Automobile, Fire Casualty and other premiums."

At 6 p. m. a dutch treat dinner will be held at Cumberland Country Club, to be followed by a special program of entertainment. The ladies are invited to both the luncheon at the hotel and the dinner at the Country Club.

Tomorrow, a program of convention speeches will occupy the delegates most of the day with a cocktail party at Ali Chan Country Club at 6 p. m., followed by the convention banquet at 7 p. m., also at the Shrine Club.

U. S. Senator J. Glenn Beall will be guest speaker at the banquet and Brian B. Kane will be toastmaster, with Barnard presiding.

A part of the banquet program will be the installation of officers by John H. Coppage, deputy insurance commissioner of Maryland.

Entertainment will be provided featuring a floor show from Radio Artists Company, Pittsburgh, with music for a dance by The Mid-nights.

Tuesday's Schedule

Tomorrow's convention talks include "General Liability" at 10:30 a. m. by Albert L. Latham, manager of the Agency Department, Casualty, Fidelity and Surety, Baltimore Branch The Travelers; "The New Marine Definition and What It Means To You" at 2:30 p. m. by Paul K. Mullen, secretary, National Union Insurance Companies; "Fidelity Bonds," 3:30 p. m. by Charles S. Sooper, manager, Fidelity Department, National Surety Corporation.

Tomorrow morning, a special meeting is scheduled for 9:30 to 10:15 a. m. to discuss "Agency Qualification Law." E. Churchill Murray will preside.

During the convention here, a program of entertainment for the ladies has been arranged by a committee of which Miss Naoma Flanagan, Westernport, is chairman. She is being assisted by Mrs. James Reinhart, chairman of a card party committee with Mrs. John Workmeister and Mrs. William Harrison assisting.

Tuesday's luncheon committee includes Mrs. Robert Barnard Jr., Mrs. John Geare and Mrs. Henry Holzshu. The luncheon for the ladies will be held at Cumberland Country Club at 1:30 p. m.

This afternoon, a card party is scheduled at the Cumberland Country Club with transportation leaving the Fort Cumberland at 2 p. m.

Today's Sermonette

My Father worketh hitherto, and I work. John 5:17.

Today's sermonette is a digest of the sermon preached yesterday at Grace Baptist Church by the pastor, Rev. W. Randolph Keeffe. The sermon digests are being prepared through the cooperation of the Cumberland Ministerial Association.

Men At Work

BY REV. W. RANDOLPH KEEFFE

Ideas are dangerous. A house painter, Adolf Hitler by name, picked up several selfish ideas. They have cost the world much in bloodshed and suffering.

Rev. Keeffe

We will be paying for these ideas he picked up. We will be paying for the long time these ideas were not original with Herr Hitler. They were old ideas which have been tried by many men. They will be tried again. There are men who still teach the same ideas. What a pity the world has such teachers. What a price we will have to pay for listening to such. The adoption of such ideas have always proved costly to all.

There are other ideas being taught. Everyone who goes to church hears better ideas. We make our choice as to what ideas we will adopt. Today you will make a decision as to the kind of ideas

Insurance Convention Opens

Truman B. Cash of Westminster, association treasurer and a former athletic coach at Allegany High School here; J. Vernon Coblentz of Frederick, state national director; Barnard, and Robert J. Thome, association secretary.

A. Derr Golladay Returns From Exploring Lost World

By F. ALLAN WEATHERHOLT News Staff Writer

A. Derr Golladay, 401 Washington Street, has returned from an exploratory trip into the deep jungles of British Guiana, where he went as representative of a firm interested in locating deposits of diamonds and minerals.

Golladay, a well known local aeronautical engineer who has also made outstanding developments in plastics and their use, joined the company of young Marylanders over two months ago for the exploration. Golladay says they found diamonds, and they found evidence of other deposits. They obtained from the British government exclusive prospecting rights for the vast area.

The group returned to the states to plan for a larger expedition which will involve raising capital obtaining various pieces of equipment, and then a return trip will be made and mining will be started.

Golladay says he went to Georgetown on the coast and from there he traveled by plane about 200 air miles to the interior, to a place called Tumureng, on the Mazaruni River in the Mazaruni-Potaro district.

Making Tumureng his base, he then traveled by boat and on foot more than 50 miles into the jungles. Much of this country has never been explored, and most of it has never been fully mapped. Available maps, he said, were incomplete or completely inaccurate.

He explored vast sections of the Eping, Mazaruni and Kurupung rivers, and headed an expedition up the huge escarpment area known as the "lost world."

Golladay explored on and around the Kumara Falls, which is four times as high as the Niagara Falls and has never been shown on any map. Golladay ventures that few white men have even seen it. Natives talk about it, but most of them will not travel into that area at all.

Golladay penetrated the jungles to within 40 miles of the Brazilian border and within 60 miles of Venezuela. He says the jungle, known to scientists as a rain forest, was not as formidable as one might suppose, although dangers of every kind are constantly present.

The heavy growth, the almost constant rains, the insects, reptiles, vampire bats, and other plagues all tend to discourage exploration and development. Yet, he declares, many diamonds are being taken in the general area.

Golladay is enthusiastic about his findings and about the possibilities of uncovering vast stores of hidden wealth. The worst problem, he declares, will be to get heavy equipment into the area where the diamonds can be dredged or mined.

He and his associates are convinced they know where the mother lode that feeds the area is situated. They developed positive proof that all the water which flows from this escarpment on one side and feeds the Amazon, and all the water which feeds the huge Mazaruni on the other side, flows from the escarpment. All along both of these streams diamonds are found in profitable quantities.

The closer one gets to the escarpment itself, the better, sharper and newer are the diamonds. This is true in the waters on either side. So they conclude that the great diamond deposit is on top the almost inaccessible escarpment, several thousand feet high, a huge unexplored plateau... "the lost world."

Golladay says they have plans involving some engineering problems which can be overcome, to reach the deposit. He said they made the necessary official contacts.

They explored the area fully and now want to get ready to return for a well planned, properly financed and thorough, efficient operation.

40,547 Citizens Now Registered For County Vote

Only Four New Voters Are Added

Allegany County had 40,547 registered voters as of October 1, but representatives of the County Board of Election Supervisors reported that the list is continuing to dwindle slightly each month.

For instance, during September there were only four new registrants while 30 were removed from the poll books because of death, and three others at their own request.

Among the 40,547 voters are 40,097 white persons and 450 Negroes. Of the registered voters 22,885 are Republicans (11,733 men and 11,152 women) and 17,395 are Democrats (8,924 men and 8,471 women).

There also are 244 independents (181 men and 63 women) who have declined to state political preference, 21 Socialists (13 men and eight women) and one man and one woman belonging to other parties.

The 30 stricken from the books as a result of death include 19 Republicans (17 men and two women) and 11 Democrats (nine men and two women). Three of the four new registrants are Republicans (two men and one woman) and the lone new Democrat is a woman.

Other September activity included five transfers from one precinct to another, three changes of address only and three removals by request. Two men previously registered as Democrats changed their political affiliation because no party switching is allowed within six months of the primary scheduled for May 7 next year.

Knights Templar Plan Visitation

Harry B. Shaw, right eminent grand commander, and Charles N. J. Gwinn, eminent grand inspector general, of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Maryland will make their official visitation and inspection of Antioch Commandery No. 6 on Tuesday evening.

Forming of the lines for inspection and review will be in charge of Past Grand Commander Grant A. Wiebel. Following the inspection, the Order of the Temple will be conferred by Commander Ralph G. Shipley. He will be assisted by Generalissimo Joseph Davis.

At the conclusion of conferring, refreshments will be served in the banquet hall. The committee in charge consists of Past Commander Roy V. Ringler and Sir Knight Leroy E. Kimes and Robert M. Shuck.

Parents Hold Workshop

Some of the newer findings concerning the physiological growth of children were discussed by Dr. Ira Gordon, consultant of the Child Study Institute of the University of Maryland, at a parent discussion workshop attended by some 135 parents from throughout Allegany County.

The workshop was conducted at Beall Elementary School in Frostburg. Miss Esther M. Carter, a visiting teacher in the pupil personnel department of the county public school system, presided in the absence of Homer S. Higgins, county pupil personnel supervisor.

After lunch a group of parents from LaVale conducted a discussion of problems. The workshop closed with an evaluation prepared by Miss Dorothy Shires, state supervisor of pupil personnel.

Another parent discussion group workshop will be arranged for next April.

Man 103, Survives His Daughter, 83

Among the survivors of Mrs. Beryl Van Meter, 83, of Maysville, W. Va., widow of William Andrew Van Meter, is her father, Gabe, Rohrbaugh, 103, a retired farmer, also of Maysville.

Mrs. Van Meter died late Saturday night following a lingering illness. She was a native of Grant County, a daughter of Gabe Rohrbaugh and the late Mrs. Frances (Turner) Rohrbaugh, and was born July 15, 1872.

Besides her aged father, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Alice Keplinger, Maysville, and Mrs. Ira Keplinger, Keyser; six sons, George Van Meter, Cumberland; Charles Van Meter, Akron; Hiram and Thomas Van Meter of Elk Garden; and Claude and Jess Van Meter, Maysville.

She also leaves two brothers, Ollie Rohrbaugh, Monterey, Va., and Edward Rohrbaugh, Maysville; and two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Bun, New Creek, and Mrs. Jane Dolly, Maysville.

The body is at the Schaeffer Funeral Home in Petersburg.

Patient In Hospital

Mrs. Marshall Wolford, Martin's Mountain, is a patient in Sacred Heart Hospital.

Boy, 9, Killed When Rifle Held By Cousin Fires

Terry Harclerode Shooting Victim

A nine-year-old boy was accidentally killed yesterday afternoon by his first cousin while visiting on the Bedford County (Pa.) farm of his uncle, according to Pennsylvania State Police.

Killed was Terry Homer Harclerode, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Harclerode Jr., RFD 2, Mercersburg, Pa.

The Harclerodes had traveled from their Franklin County home for a Sunday visit with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robert Harclerode, along Pennsylvania Route 36 about one mile south of the Bedford County community of Woodbury. The two Harclerodes are brothers.

Young Terry and his cousin, Harry Robert Harclerode Jr., went into a wagon shed to play while their parents talked. They found a .22-caliber rifle there and began examining it.

While Harry was holding the rifle, it accidentally discharged, the bullet striking Terry in the head. The youngster was pronounced dead upon arrival at Nason Hospital in Roaring Spring. The accident occurred about 5 p. m. (EST).

Vernon Geisel, Bedford County coroner, issued a verdict of accidental death. Pfc. Newton C. Robbins of the Pennsylvania State Police investigated.

Public School Teachers Meet This Weekend

BALTIMORE, Oct. 16 (AP)—Public school teachers will be asked this week to reaffirm their support of racial integration in schools "in a fair and lawful manner."

The subject will be brought up in a resolution to be introduced Thursday at the opening business session of the 88th annual convention of the Maryland State Teachers Assn.

More than 14,000 public school teachers from throughout the State are expected for the three-day convention.

The integration resolution and another calling on the teachers to participate in an extensive public relations program are among those which will go before the convention. Reports of the resolutions committee will be acted upon at a second business session Saturday.

No school classes will be held Thursday and Friday to enable the teachers to attend the convention. They are not required to attend, but those who don't are expected to put in full working days at their schools.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan will be the speaker at the first general session Thursday afternoon. Dr. Ethel J. Alpenfels, professor of anthropology in the School of Education, New York University, will address the second general session Friday morning. Billie Davis, writer and Sunday school field representative of the Assemblies of God, will be the speaker at the third general session Saturday.

Rotary Club To Meet

The weekly meeting of the Cumberland Rotary Club will be held Wednesday at 12:15 p. m. in the Community Room of the YMCA. The program will consist of a play, "Buyer-Seller Relations," under the direction of F. Ted Bell, vocational chairman.

Symphony Concert Set Here

Times-News Will Sponsor Benefit

The Times-News papers will sponsor a special reduced-rate concert by the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra as the windup feature of the Fort Cumberland Bicentennial November 11 at Fort Hill High School auditorium.

All receipts above costs will go to the Cumberland Free Public Library.

The 95-piece orchestra, conducted by Massimo Freccia, will be brought here from Baltimore by special arrangement with the Times and Allegany Company, publisher of the Evening and Sunday Times and The Cumberland News.

Before even any tickets were available scores of calls came to the Times-News office and to music stores here seeking reservations.

For the convenience of music lovers in the area tickets may be reserved now by letter (accompanied by remittance) to J. William Hunt, Times-News Building, Cumberland, Md.

Arrangements are being made to put the reserved seat tickets on sale three weeks ahead of time (starting this Friday, October 21) at the Library, two local music stores and Cumberland Electric Co., 137 Virginia Avenue, this city; at Gainer's Pharmacy and Corbett's Drugstore, Romney; and at central locations in Frostburg, Westernport, Keyser, Moorefield and Bedford. The definite places will be announced early in the week.

In the meantime quick service may be obtained by ordering direct to the Times-News by mail. Tickets will be mailed when self-addressed stamped envelope is enclosed with order.

The choice orchestra seats are only $2.50 (in Baltimore orchestra seats are $3.60 and box seats $4.50). Other reserved seats are $2 and $1.50, including balcony. An effort is being made to get an extremely low student price approved.

Tentatively set for performance here as the Baltimore orchestra's main offering is Beethoven's great Fifth Symphony, popularly known as the Victory Symphony, favorite of Sir Winston Churchill. Anderson's "Irish Suite" is one of the shorter pieces programmed for the Cumberland concert.

Price Of Milk Goes Up Today

Milk prices in the Cumberland area will go up a penny a quart today, making the retail price 23 cents, according to local dairy sources. A previous increase had been made in the Pittsburgh, Baltimore-Washington areas and dairies there have been paying local producers a higher price and getting an increasing share of Cumberland area raw milk. At this season of the year there is a drop in milk production.

Cost of a half gallon of milk will jump from 41 to 43 cents.

There will be no increase in the price of cream and milk by-products.

Calvary Methodist To Hold Revival

Revival services will be held from October 16-30 at the Calvary Methodist Church of Ridgeley. The services will begin each evening at 7:30.

Rev. T. Roscoe Hall, pastor, will be the evangelist, and Rev. Mel Negley of Weirton, W. Va., will be the song leader. On the evening of October 24, the Men's Chorus of Meyersdale, Pa., will present special music. The revival will close with a hymn festival on the evening of the 30th.

New Bishop Will Attend Session Of Convocation

Holy Cross To Host Regional Meeting

Rt. Rev. Harry Lee Doll, D. D., new suffragan bishop of the Diocese of Maryland, will make his first visit to Cumberland since his consecration when he participates in the annual fall meeting of the Convocation of Cumberland tomorrow at Holy Cross Episcopal Church on Virginia Avenue.

The Convocation of Cumberland embraces all of the Episcopal churches in Western Maryland from Mt. Airy to Oakland. Clergy and lay delegates are expected to represent each parish and mission.

Tomorrow's meeting also will mark the first time for Holy Cross Church to serve as host to the convocation.

The program will begin at 11 a. m. with a celebration of the Holy Communion by Rt. Rev. Noble C. Powell, D. D., bishop of Maryland. He will be assisted by Bishop Doll, Rev. Charles I. Kratz Jr., dean of the convocation and rector of St. John's Church Frostburg, and St. Peter's Church in Lonaconing, and Rev. David C. Street II, vicar of St. Philip's Church and Holy Cross Church here.

Rev. James C. Fenhagen II, rector of St. Mark's parish, Frederick and Washington counties, will preach the sermon. Rev. G. Stanley Schwind, rector of St. George's Church, Mt. Savage, and chairman of the Commission on Church Music, will play special music for the Eucharist.

Luncheon will be served in the Parish Hall at 1 p. m. The Women's Guild of Holy Cross, under the direction of Mrs. Harry McNabb, will prepare and serve the meal.

After lunch Bishop Doll, who also is president of the Council of Churches and Christian Education of Maryland-Delaware, Inc., will report on the recent general Convocation of the Episcopal Church in Honolulu.

Stolen Wallet Found In Sewer

It took interdepartmental cooperation last night to recover the wallet, valuable papers and a torn one-dollar bill belonging to Mrs. Veretta Sanders, 329 Central Avenue.

Mrs. Sanders, who works at the Queen City Station, reported yesterday afternoon that her wallet containing $19 in cash and valuable papers had been stolen from the ladies rest room at the station.

Two young girls, one 15 and the other 17, surrendered at Police Headquarters later in the day after having been informed that they were being sought for questioning.

Detective Joseph H. Stichter recovered $12 partially covered with dirt in an alley just off North Liberty Street and a short distance from headquarters. When the wallet was seen floating in a sewer on South Liberty Street, C. R. True, 715 North Mechanic Street, who works for the street department, was called. He fished the wallet out of the sewer.

Checking another sewer on South Centre Street, True found some of Mrs. Sanders' papers and a torn one-dollar bill. The girls, who gave conflicting stories about the theft, were lodged overnight at the juvenile detention headquarters at the County Infirmary.

Pair Turned Over To Md. Authorities

BALTIMORE, Oct. 16 (AP)—Two men charged with the $27,000 burglary of a Western Maryland home six years ago have been turned over to the State after being arrested by the FBI.

D. K. Brown, special agent in charge of the Baltimore FBI office, yesterday identified them as Harold P. Odum, 60, and James W. Golden, 45.

He said they were arrested Wednesday on federal warrants charging them with fleeing Maryland and to avoid prosecution for burglary. The warrants were issued last April in connection with the October, 1949, burglary at the home of Arthur Lee Green in LaVale, Md., near Cumberland.
